Keith is a Director and Associate of Sproule and as President is responsible for the Canadian, U.S., International, Unconventional and Project Management subsidiaries. Keith's experience at Sproule has been primarily in the areas of property and corporate reserves/resource evaluations, acquisitions and divestitures, securities commission reports, and investment advice. He has lectured at the University of Calgary and to the petroleum industry through Sproule's courses on the "Evaluation of Canadian Oil and Gas Properties", "Risk Analysis of Canadian Oil and Gas Properties", and "Introduction to Coalbed Methane". He has also presented to industry on topics such as "National Instrument 51-101", "SPE and SEC Reserve Definitions and Guidance", "Understanding Reserve Evaluations" and "The Process of Determining the Fair Market Value of Reserves."

Keith has been active with the Society of Petroleum Engineers ("SPE"), as the 2010 nominee from Canada for the international board as well as a Past President and Director of the Canadian Section. He also served as a co-chair of the Gas Technology Symposium and Horizontal Well Technology Conference. Keith was also involved in the technical and finance committees of past Gas Symposiums.

Keith has been active with the Canadian Section of the Society of Petroleum Evaluation Engineers ("SPEE"). He was one of the authors that prepared the Canadian Oil and Gas Evaluation Handbook, Volume II, "Detailed Guidelines for Estimation and Classification of Oil and Gas Resources and Reserves". He served on the Standing Committee for COGEH from 2003 to 2005 and the Reserve Committee from 2005 to 2008. Keith currently serves on the editorial committee for the recently formed SPEE Journal.

Keith served as an industry advisor to the Alberta Securities Commission, and served on their Oil and Gas Taskforce and Sub-Committee from 1998 to 2002. This taskforce provided the recommendations that formed the basis for National Instrument 51-101 which governs oil and gas disclosure in Canada.

Keith has experience in Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Azerbaijan, Belize, Canada, China, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cote d'Ivoire, the Czech Republic, Ecuador, Egypt, Equatorial Guinea, India, Iran, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Kuwait, Peru, Russia, Ukraine, United Kingdom, the United States, and Venezuela.

Keith is a member of APEGGA, SPE, and SPEE.
